PLEAD FOR FREEDOM OF ELSE RAYMOND

ACQUITTED—ETTOR, CARUSO AND GIOVANNITTI

AUGUSTA, Nov. 26.—The trial of Mrs. Elsie Holmes Raymond for the murder of William Raymond was continued today by the sharp and snappy answers of Nellie Stimpson, who was asked at the Elmwood Hotel at the time of the tragedy, seven years ago.

Her testimony was something of a surprise, especially when she testified that on the Saturday following the death of the Blackett girl, Bert Raymond, husband of his defendant, said to her:

"I am going to have had work getting Elsie out of this. Will you say you saw Elsie sitting on a wall in the orchard at 6 o'clock on the night of the murder?"

She said she refused to make such a statement.

Her chief counsel, Congressman Daniel B. McMillen, late today makes the statement, effect of his life to free his client, "Dan Mac," as he is called by thousands who know him in the Free Press State, he lives in the language of his client.

Both Sides Confident.

"I am sure of an acquittal," he said today as he left his hotel for the courthouse. Judge Whitcomb will make his charge to the jury tomorrow morning.

Accused—Frances W. R. Patterson, the alleged specimen of Maine manhood who has fought his way from a sailor to the front rank of lawyers in this State, is also equally confident of a victory.

Mr. Patterson is the best-known figure in Maine's political life. He is an orator with the grace and conviction of an actor. It will probably be his last capital case, for he leaves his office the first of the new year.

And today the stage is set for the last act in this legal drama. As the little boat on the courthouse pond told the case of 9:30 Judge Whitcomb entered the courtroom. He was followed by the lawyer and newspaper men.

Never has the Supreme Court room in this county been so crowded. The doors of August's society were present to hear the final arguments. They came to listen to the two leading actors of the State.

Defendant Shows Worry.

Several witnesses were called by the State to rebut testimony of extra defense witnesses. But their testimony was only indirect to the real issue of the day.

At 5 o'clock the case will go to the jury. It is expected that the jury will be out by 10 o'clock.

GAS STRANGELY KILLS OLD PAIR

BOLYKE, Nov. 26.—Francis Malferi, sixty-five years old, and his wife, Philomena Malferi, aged sixty, were found dead this morning in their apartments on the fourth floor of a tenement at No. 20 Chestnut street. They had been dead at least ten days. Death was due to asphyxiation by gas.

A week ago last Saturday the couple moved into their present home and had not been seen since. On the night they moved in, people living in an apartment below them heard the sound of a falling body. As days passed the neighbors became frightened, and this morning Arthur Dwyer, a neighbor, called into the kitchen window.

On the floor, partly dressed, was Mr. Malferi. He had his wife could be seen. Medical Examiner W. J. Tolan was summoned and well conducted an investigation.

No one seems to know where the Malferis came from and what Malferi's occupation was. It is said they have a daughter living in Blythe.

GUNMEN TO DIE WEEK OF JAN. 6

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—With the month now passed by, thirty deaths, mostly men and women, all heavily armed, to prevent any outbreak or attempt at rescue. Harry Horowitz, alias "Old Blood," Louis Rosenberg, alias "Lefty Frank," Frank Miller, alias "Whitey Lewis," and Frank Christel, alias "Dago Frank," were today sentenced to die in the electric chair in the week beginning January 6 for the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

MARCH OUT AT SCHOOL BLAZE

Five hundred boys and girls who attended the grammar school in Sterling street, Roxbury, obeyed the command of their teachers today and marched calmly to the street when submaster Ames told the fire drill, but after he had been informed by George Webster, a pupil in the eighth grade, that there was a fire in the basement.

Webster smelted smoke in a hall and told his teacher, Miss May Walker, who told him to the submaster. Mrs. Walker had marshaled her pupils to double file outside the classroom. When the alarm smelted she had them file quietly out. Eight other classes, though the building was filled with smoke, marched to the street.

David Minott, the janitor, and three janitors, Oscar Johnson, brought the fire with a garden hose until the drum stopped.

Wilson in Bermuda May Have to Eat Cold Storage Turkey

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 26.—President-elect Wilson, who has been suffering from a slight attack of indigestion, had regained his normal health today. This evening the President-elect will be the guest of honor at a state dinner given by the Governor-General, Lieutenant-Governor George M. Bullock, and he has accepted an invitation to play tennis at take up on the Governor-General's estate tomorrow afternoon.

No special preparations have been made for Thanksgiving dinner by the Wilson family, although if they have turkey it will be a cold storage bird from the United States, as turkey are not raised here. The President-elect has planned to go to Boston, Va., his birthplace, on December 26, for the celebration of his 57th birthday. There probably will be a repetition of the family tree.

SALAM COURTHOUSE, Nov. 26.—All three not guilty.

That was the verdict reported a Judge Quinn at 9:30 a. m. today in the case of Joseph J. Ettor, Arturo Giovanniitti and Joseph Caruso, who have been on trial for eight weeks charged with the murder of Anna Leonard, which took place in Lawrence the time of the textile strike.

The jury reached a verdict at 6:40 last evening after being out six hours. The three accused men retired without knowing that a verdict had been agreed on. Court opened at 8 o'clock today as the verdict might be reported sooner than the usual time for opening court.

The court room was well filled when the jury walked in and gave their verdict. The three prisoners, one after another, thanked the court and the jury for the verdict and for the treatment of the case.

Prisoners Thank Court.

The three prisoners, one after another, thanked the court and the jury for the verdict and for the treatment of the case.

Not guilty. "I was never. It was released on his own recognizance."

An indictment was also read against Ettor and Giovanniitti for conspiracy, together with William D. Raymond and Giovanniitti. Ettor and Giovanniitti both pleaded not guilty and were released in $500 bail, which was furnished by their attorneys.

Mrs. Caruso Weeps.

When the three prisoners came into court they looked cheerful, but it was apparent they had been given and the prisoner had thanked the court. Court George read an indictment against Joseph Caruso in connection with them in bill. It was stated to plead guilty or not guilty to this charge.

LAWRENCE, Nov. 26.—The local I. W. W. received the news of the Ettor verdict today with rejoicing and immediately began plans for a Thanksgiving day celebration in honor of it.

The citizens' committee, which arranged and carried through the Columbus day parade to protest against the I. W. W., in which 22,000 men, women and children participated, has plans all made for a grand parade Thanksgiving day against the I. W. W. The Thanksgiving day program calls for school and city hall meetings instead of a parade.

If the I. W. W. plans include a parade or other elaborate demonstration, then Thanksgiving day will include two separate demonstrations diametrically opposite in sentiment.

The interesting prospect is being discussed throughout the city as to the bearing.

William Yates, national secretary of the I. W. W. and now permanently located in Lawrence, sent in the organization headquarters in Chicago to the branch offices today the following telegram:

"Ettor, Giovanniitti and Caruso—Not guilty. I. W. W. vindicated. We'll keep the red flag flying here."

"I. W. W. vindicated."

Mr. Yates said, regarding the verdict and the Thanksgiving day outcome:

"We had no fear of the outcome at any time since the men were arrested. The acquittal of the three men is not only a verdict of not guilty, but a vindication of the I. W. W."

"There are no doubt to celebrate the vindication of the men, this celebration to take place Thanksgiving day."

"The I. W. W. will continue its work of organizing laborers for more wages and shorter hours. Ultimately this working class will come into possession of their own, the full product of their toil."

"Ettor, Giovanniitti, as well as Caruso, will be added to be here on Thanksgiving day."

Behind this general plan the I. W. W. prepared a program for the day. The celebration has been made to the authorities as far as the police are concerned.

What Citizens Plan.

When the Citizens' Committee held its present parade on Columbus day the I. W. W. challenged for its meeting at Marlborough street.

The Citizens' Committee was free in the Thanksgiving day day because, when the original parade was considered, it was decided that the parade would be held on Thanksgiving day as a protest against the I. W. W.

The Citizens' Committee program for the day will be to hold a series of meetings in the public schools and in city hall, beginning at 9 a. m. The speaker will include three distinguished sons of Lawrence: Samuel S. Alden, the Boston attorney; Judge Charles A. DeCory of the Superior Judicial Court and Judge Robert S. Sherman (retired, formerly of the Superior Court).

WORLD ANTI-WAR STRIKE IS CALLED FOR DECEMBER 16

HARLE, Saturday.—Congress called today to discuss means of preventing war and especially to oppose the armaments of the United States, today decided on an anti-war strike of all trades throughout the world to continue for two full hours on December 16.

The delegates were instructed in their meeting to rally the co-operation of working men everywhere. They expressed their opinion that a big mass meeting in some important city in Europe, such as London, as well as in New York, would be of great value.

HOLD UP BARK FOR SHANGHAI MAN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The revenue cutter Oriskany intercepted the Italian bark Po off Smith's Point, Va., early today, claiming the captain under arrest on a charge of having kidnapped a man named McCarthy, an Englishman. The bark was taken to Norfolk.

Springer were charged with the duty and the power to conduct investigations to ascertain whether or not there were violations of the Sherman act with view primarily to the formation of supplemental legislation should such be thought necessary.

It is the opinion of the committee that the bill now before the Senate seems to merit a close introduction by the distinguished Senator from Texas, Mr. Springer.

Mr. Springer: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. and in reply to inform you that the bill now before the Senate seems to merit a close introduction by the distinguished Senator from Texas, Mr. Springer.

Hint at impeachment.

First, an inquiry as to whether the Attorney-General has been derelict in his duty in enforcing the Sherman Anti-Trust law. The suppression of competition by the New Haven Railroad is to be taken as one of the alleged instances, so I understand, and the failure to serve the warrants obtained by the State of Texas for the arrest of J. D. Archbold, is another. It is to be stated that the Sherman Anti-Trust law has been violated in the pact between the Grand Trunk and the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad.

Second, an inquiry as to whether the power of money trust was used in coercing the Grand Trunk into ceasing work on their extension into New England. I understand that a New England Congress will be introduced these resolutions as soon as Congress meets.

Congress meets.

Congressman R. Smith of Texas adds to the above important comment.

It is not at all surprising that the Attorney-General has postponed the investigation of the combine between the Illinois Central and the Hartford Railroad and the Grand Trunk.

I do not know what Congress will do unless it impeaches him. No one wants to do that so near the close of his term of office.

Probe Will Be Thorough.

Criminal prosecution will be in all these violations of the anti-trust law and yet that part of the anti-trust law has not been enforced by the present administration since the time of the new tariff office. Have you heard of any prosecution of any of the trust magnates? Take the tobacco trust officials, for instance. None of these trusts publicly admitted to have been convicted. It is likely under the present administration that any trust

Billy McTigue, Wed in Secret Six Weeks Ago, Honeymoons Alone

Billy McTigue, youngest pitcher on the Boston Nationals' staff, today gave a regular bear's hug of a welcome, down in Nashville, Tenn., to the bride he secretly wed six weeks ago and has scarcely seen since.

Meanwhile, friends of the bride, who was Anna Farmer Sawyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leen Sawyer of No. 62 Harris street, Brookline, received the wedding announcements of the wedding of Miss Sawyer to Mr. George H. Wood, Jr., October 8, just three days after their engagement was announced. Mr. Wood would have had to go home to Nashville to leave his prospective bride behind him. But he and Miss Sawyer agreed that they would wait until the following winter if they were really married.

Also on Tuesday, October 8, just before Mr. Wood was to go home, they slipped away from the city in a motor car for a ride to Worcester, and took the train for New London, because the bride's father had just married all at once, Greta Green and her sister, and would be absent for several days after obtaining a license.

They went to the home of Reverend Mr. Wood, where they were married, and were, and were married, the minister's son and granddaughter serving as witnesses.

PRAISES AUTO ROADS IN SPAIN

Louis Scott, manager of the Hotel Ritz, in Madrid, who is visiting in Boston, today gave an urgent invitation to all Boston and Massachusetts motorists to visit Spain and try the good roads there. He is in America to attend the opening of the new Ritz-Carlton hotels in Philadelphia and Montreal and is devoting a large part of his time to praising Spain and Spanish roads. Here is what he has to say:

I want to see all Americans who visit Europe include a trip to Spain in their plans. No country of Europe offers greater inducements in picturesque and varied scenery and the conditions for railroad or motor travel are excellent. Within the past twelve months 37,000 miles of road have been put into the condition for auto-

An appropriation of approximately $10,000,000 has been made by the government for road improvements. No one has done more to popularize the sport of motoring in Spain than King Alfonso.

Opening Night at the Opera Reveals Marvel of Scenic Beauty

Stage Manager Starred in "Tales of Hoffmann," Says Frederick Johns of First Night.

By FREDERICK JOHNS.

The thing that seemed to be set down in connection with the opening of the fourth season of Grand Opera in Boston last night, is the character of the production of "Tales of Hoffmann."

Among others, I wondered why this production and not particularly spectacular production had been chosen to open the season, but the mystery is explained. It wasn't the singers, like as they are, nor the chorus, nor the stage manager, but Director Russell wished to introduce to us, but the stage manager.

I think it is the first time a stage manager ever was starred, and never before did he deserve such honors as well. For the production of the fantastic "Tales of Hoffmann," in which, incidentally, appearing in its presentation, though rather light in the first.

Joseph Tricoli, the stage director is responsible for the success of the production. They saw the chorus in the foreground and the conductor in the rear, they even sang, especially without foot-

Two for One--Double Count Big Opportunity in Contest

BY THE CONTEST EDITOR.

One day goes!

One of the all-important subscription-getting days in the American $40,000 contest has already slipped by.

Did YOU make a start yesterday on your first list of ten subscribers?

TWO FOR ONE--DOUBLE CREDIT--that's what you get on your first list.

You turn in during this week and the next two weeks to come.

It is not only possible, but it's probable, that the dual winners of the $10,000, the $5,000 prizes and the 1,485 other awards will be determined largely by the subscription-getting result shown during Opportunity Week.

No that all may fairly understand this the biggest offer of the contest, we repeat:

Each lot of 10 subscriptions turned in between Sunday, November 24, and Saturday, December 14, at 10 P. M., will count double.

This does not mean that candidates should hold their subscriptions until they get a complete lot or lot of ten. On the contrary, it is most important that all subscribers be turned in just as fast as they are obtained. If you have only six or eight or nine, send them in immediately after the close of Opportunity Week.

Remember, any candidate who gets six or seven or eight AND NO MORE, before the Opportunity offer ends, will get the regular vote credit. In other words, the double credit will be given ONLY on lots of ten.

Any candidate who fails to turn in every possible subscription that he can, is not only losing the double credit, but is also losing the regular credit. He is also losing the regular credit. He is also losing the regular credit.

And here is the reason:

The whole thing is guaranteed that this is positively the largest special offer which will be made in the contest.

Competition. No other offer at any time before the contest will be as large as this.

Every minute of every day for the next three weeks is a time of possibilities.

Remember, the contest is a contest of possibilities. It is a contest of possibilities. It is a contest of possibilities.

Miss Chadburn Not Afraid Laughs at Perils of Stage

MISS CHADBURN, WHO "MUST DANCE"

By ELIZABETH ELLIOTT.

From the footlights of an amateur show to the fairland of a real honest-to-goodness stage career is the leap which Hazel "Hudson, who was the star of "The College Hero," is about to take. She is the harder to refuse, and by the time the third and fourth arrive, they're most welcome.

"The girl loses her health and then her head. Her ballet is gone, and what follows? I certainly have heard it all by this time.

In talking with Miss Chubbard about this change, which would fill the average girl with apprehensions, I couldn't help asking her apprehensions. "I don't know," she litte figure answered in her chat, "I've danced with enthusiasm and a suite against my best costume." "Afraid?" No, indeed. I've dancing. I don't know. I can dance and I know that I shall be so."

"Naturally, say poor and weary all my friends object to my going on the stage. They tell me I am too terribly nervous, and hardships waiting at the stage door for every girl, and cite the many instances of girls who have failed miserably and good judgment to say 'Howdy,' and pass on."

"The girl needs to see judgment in any walk of life. If she doesn't demand respect, she'll soon find she isn't getting it."

As he stated some so frightful men
Are to be hated needs not to be seen;
Yet doth their image still in former views
Of him who loved them live; whose death was theirs,
We first endure, then pity, then embrace.

"I know," said the girl, "that the first temptation resisted means another battle driven deep into her armor, and more strength gained for the next temptation. I know that if I did those things which you speak of, I would lose self-respect, and if I lost that personality I shall

"They tell me pitiful tales of girls who have gone on the stage to dance. They say that if a girl does not dance, she will not be able to escape the clutches of the underworld and will go through the pangs of dancing and going home and going to bed and getting up next, to go through the same routine, and that perhaps some time when I and Fred are unemployed, I will be tempted to attend one of these wine suppers."

REBUKE NEWTON
SCHOOL BOARD

In a majority report on the School Board appropriation the Finance Committee of Newton Board of Aldermen accuses the School Board of "extremely doubtful propriety" in pursuing the Aldermen on the appropriation matter and intimates that the School Board has been lobbying.

The School Board asked for $342,030. The Finance Committee had a report prepared for the Aldermen's Board meeting last night, recommending that this be reduced to $235,000.

The Finance Committee asked for a ten minute recess and was out three hours.

while to remaining members of the Board. The Board waited patiently, but in refusing to elect the Finance Committee reported favorably on the School Board's original request. But five members were to serve on the committee, and since Miller was not a member, Ben and Hilda, also signed a statement rebuffing the Finance Board's motions.

There is more interest being displayed in the Wolfcat Ritebout than in the pugilistic argument which Mandot and Rivers will have on Thursday, but the battle between the Frenchman and the Mexican is certain to be every bit as good.

the struggle between the lightweight champion and Ritchie Mandot and Rivers are both wonderful lightweights. They have proved their worth in two squared circle fights and again Rivers was considered as a possible champion until he was humbled by Mandot recently, while the latter has yet to meet his master.

litters and Mandolynoth realize that a great deal depends upon the outcome of their bout. The winner has been promised a title with Ad N. gow. Both of them are sure that Tom Jones' battler will conquer Hickle and therefore a Vulgast, Mandot or a Wo'gast livers bout would be for the lightweight championship of the world. And let me assure you, a boxing title is a universal asset in these days of high cost of a living.

Now, further, it is confident that

French will win front-runners, and that he will beat them the lightweight champion ship. Joe, usually not the boldest of New Yorkers, and the honors were pretty even for ten out of ten rounds of thrilling fighting, telling which time the French youth scored a knockdown.

MANDOT PICKED RED SOX SELL TO WIN BOUT: HUGH BRADLEY

By JACK CONWAY.

While Ad Wolgast and Wilho Kitten are lazing the winters in Daly City, Cal. on Thanksgiving Day, Joe Mandot, the ex-famous Southern lightweight, is on his hardest to bring about the dismissal of Joe Hirsch in a twenty-four foot rig in Vernon.

There is more interest being displayed

"Horn Blud" Bradley has been out on right to the Jersey City club by the He Ro management. Bradley has been with the Red Sox for several years, and in this time he has acted as substitute catcher and substitute first baseman.

Great street things were expected of Hugh H. Spring. It was believed that he would lead the good undertaker to Manager J. V. Stahl, and possibly become the regular first baseman.

EVERETT MAY PLAY AT FENWAY PARK

The Everett High and Oak Park eleven will probably clash at Fenway Park Tuesday. It was originally planned to have the game played at the Everett stadium, but this was found to be impossible as the Harvard Athletic Association does not permit outside teams to charge admission when it is granted the use of the Stadium.

Winger and Mandoed both realize that a great deal depends upon the outcome of this fight. The winner has been given but a day, with Ad Winger. Both of them believe that Tom Jones' battle will remain little and the referee a Walgreen. Mandoed or a Walgreen fighter but would be for the lifetime championship of the world. Markets Higher at Opening;
Slight Recession Later;
Trading Light.

STATE STREET, Nov. 26.—Trading was extremely quiet at the opening of the local exchange today, with prices generally unchanged from Monday night closing. There has been a general movement up in call money rates in Boston, this morning from 6 per cent. to 7 per cent. This rate is very general on outside loans and some others. Call money in New York opened at 9 per cent. today.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the West End River Railway held today, the stockholders authorized the increase of 4,000 shares of additional capital stock at par value of $100. The proceeds will be used for additions and improvements to the company's property. The stock will be sold at auction. The selling directors were re-elected.

At the end of the first hour the Boston market was quiet, and prices were very irregular.

New York Speculation.
Strength and higher prices prevailed in the New York stock market at the opening today as the result of commercial activity, which put a much more optimistic complexion on the market situation. The American Pacific opened 15 points higher on buying, from London. The market closed and later increased this advance to 13 points. Among the other active stocks were:

Amalgamated Copper—Dated States steel common, 5, steel preferred 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Baltimore & Ohio.
On June 1 next Baltimore & Ohio has $20,000,000 4 1/2 per cent. callable stock bonds maturing. There is $44,000,000 of this issue in the hands of the public, and there is the issue of $40,000,000 one-year bonds for the New York Harbor aqueduct, has been set as the date in which Baltimore & Ohio will begin the maturing issue.

It should be stated that no definite plans of new financing has yet been drawn up. However, the matter has been discussed by the managers of the property, and plans have been tentatively laid for raising one of the notes when they are ready.

Managers of the Baltimore & Ohio are taking a long look ahead. The road was showing a profit of $1,000,000 on the year ending within the next financial year, but showing the $1,000,000 note due on Jan. 1 next. In the year 1912 alone they are $1,000,000 of bonds falling due, and managers of the property feel that it is not too early to take these issues into consideration.

Therefore, when plans for taking care of the issue of notes, maturing next summer, are made, it should not be forgotten that the managers of the property have created a bond issue amounting to $20,000,000.

Nevada's Extra Dividend.
At a meeting held yesterday the directors of the Utah Copper Company declared a regular quarterly dividend of 75 cents a share, and the board of directors of the Nevada Consolidated Copper Company declared a dividend of 25 cents a share, and an extra dividend of 25 cents a share, each payable December 1, 1912, to stockholders of record December 1, 1912. The extra dividend on the last dividend was not altogether unexpected, an announcement had been made in last quarter's report, published early in month, that its extra dividend would be made. The amount, however, was not stated at that time.

The extra dividend on Nevada reflects the recent of approximately $1,000,000 and will mean that with this year's dividend the Nevada Consolidated Copper Company has paid to its stockholders $2,000,000 in dividends.

The increased dividend on Nevada reflects the recent of approximately $1,000,000 and will mean that with this year's dividend the Nevada Consolidated Copper Company has paid to its stockholders $2,000,000 in dividends.

Taft and Roosevelt on the New England Monopoly

These are the facts which the American public held in their minds
—for an explanation:

Theodore Roosevelt, the Republican President in 1907, consented to the consolidation of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company with the United States Steel Trust—plainly against the letter and spirit of the Sherman Anti-Trust law.

William Howard Taft, the Republican President, explicitly declared that "THE REASON WAS THE STEAMSHIP LINES OWNED BY THE NEW YORK, NEW HAVEN & HARTFORD (RAILROAD) WERE NOT MADE PART OF THE SUIT BROUGHT BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT (AGAINST THE CONSOLIDATION OF THE NEW HAVEN ROAD WITH THE BOSTON & MAINE) WAS BECAUSE MR. ROOSEVELT HAD EXPRESSLY PERMITTED THEIR PURCHASE BY THE NEW YORK & NEW HAVEN ROAD." Mr. Taft's truthfulness at least has never been called in question.

William Howard Taft, the Republican President, began his administration by dismissing, through his Attorney-General, Wickham, the suit of the Federal Government against the New York & New Haven Railroads for a violation of the Sherman law in its combination with the Boston & Maine Railroad.

William Howard Taft, the Republican President, closes his administration after an overwhelming defeat at the polls, by withdrawing the investigation before the Federal Grand Jury in New York into the merger of the New Haven and Grand Trunk Railroads—an even more flagrant violation of the Sherman Law.

Mr. Roosevelt's plea for the merger of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company into the Steel Trust was that it prevented a panic. The plea was never sustained, in fact or in public faith. Mr. Roosevelt has as yet given no explanation of Mr. Taft's charge that he expressly permitted the New Haven Railroad to buy up the steamship lines which furnished the only competition with that monopoly.

The public will remember that the Morgan interests, which in Mr. Roosevelt's own words "were very friendly to us," engineered the T. C. & I. consolidation, and that the Morgan "friendly" interests were essentially behind President Mellen of the New Haven Railroad, whose purchase of the competing steamers Mr. Roosevelt expressly permitted. Mr. Taft's explanation of his withdrawal of the government's suit against the Boston & Maine and the New Haven merger was that they were not really competitive lines and could not be proved so.

All of New England thought so. Boston, the metropolis of New England, thought so. Its representative Chamber of Commerce, backed by the Boston AMERICAN, thought so, and said so with tremendous and persistent emphasis. The State of Rhode Island thought so to the extent of virtually subsidizing the Grand Trunk in the sum of $2,000,000 to restore competition between Boston and Providence.

President Taft's present action in calling a halt to the investigation of the Grand Trunk-New Haven merger, appears to be an absolutely flagrant surrender to this monopoly that has enslaved New England—the same monopoly which the Morgan interests back or control.

Mr. Taft's legal department now makes the astonishing explanation that IT HALTED THE INVESTIGATION IN ORDER TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION—that it called off an investigation already hopefully begun in order to begin another hopeful investigation!

Mr. Taft and the Department of Justice cannot satisfy aroused public opinion with an explanation like this.

There is no more flagrant violation of the Sherman Law in existence in the country than this New Haven monopoly, seeking to double its crushing and compelling power in New England by swallowing the Grand Trunk, which New England had almost subsidized to come in and compete with it.

Its heavy hand of monopoly is laid upon five American Commonwealths that cry out against the oppression to trade and transportation. It has spent $150,000,000 to establish the power to dominate and discriminate. It is reputed about to spend $4,000,000 more to gobble up the Grand Trunk. It has permitted the equipment of its main lines to suffer. It has shocked the country with a series of tragic and fatal disasters to its passenger trains. It is living and working in insolent daily violation of an act of the American Congress.

If an ex-President of the United States, however reformed and progressive now, expressly permitted this monopoly to violate the law by buying up competition—if a living President of the United States can summarily dismiss one suit against this railroad trust of New England, and just as summarily dismiss an investigation into its latest violation of the law—then the people either have no rights under the law or must find a way to assert them.

So far the explanations of President Taft and ex-President Roosevelt do not explain and do not satisfy. The facts as they are leave us of the opinion that wherever Mr. Morgan and big business are involved every official born out of the political system from which Taft and Roosevelt came is incorrigibly weak and not to be trusted with authority.

Do You Want to Be Thankful
Next Thursday?

Stop Something Foolish Today or Tomorrow
(Copyright, 1912, by American Journal-Examiner.)

"What have I to be thankful for?" ask ten million men—with a heavy emphasis on the word "I."
You may be thankful for many things. You have a month and a week left in which to hurry up and attend to those good resolutions made last New Year's Day.
You are still ALIVE—and have still OPPORTUNITY ahead of you. When we are thankful in this world, it is because of something we have DONE. Other people do not bother trying to make us thankful.

Do you want to be really thankful next Thursday? Stop some foolish thing that you do every day. You know what it is—and your wife probably knows, or your mother or friend—but no one tells you.

YOU KNOW.
Stop it. Get rid of some one particular foolishness, some weakness, some self-deception, some waste of time, money, health or nerve force.
Wake up next Thursday morning with just ONE less bad and foolish habit, and you will be thankful. Only YOU can give cause for thankfulness to YOU.

Remarriage—Only One Woman in Five

Remarriage Is Impossible

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

LAST LOVE

THE first flower of the Spring is not so fair
Or bright as one the ripe mid-summer brings.
The first faint note the forest warbler sings
Is not as rich with feeling, or so rare
As when, full master of his art, the air
Drowns in the liquid song of some blue thrush
Like silver spray from beak and breast, and wings;
The artist's earliest effort, wrought with care,
The bard's first ballad, written in his tears.
Set by his later toll, more poor and tame,
And into nothing dwindles at the test.
So with the passions of maturer years
Let those who will demand the first fond flame,
Give me the heart's first love, for that is best.

TWO women, both widows, were talking of life, motherhood and their ideals of duty.
One woman was something past forty; she had been a wife twenty years, and her children were growing into the romantic age. She was contemplating a second marriage with the man.
The other woman was older; past the half century mark; and her children were all married.
She rebuked the younger woman for her thought of consenting to a second marriage.

But One in Five Hundred
Is Left Under Ideals of Love

"You have a comfortable income," she said, "and your children ought to fill your life so that no more foolish ideas as a second marriage could enter your mind. I was a widow at thirty; and now I am fifty; and I am thankful to say I am satisfied to be my children's mother, and not their stepmother's wife."
"But," replied the younger woman with some spirit, "I do not see that your example is one which would make other women eager to follow it."

Time Softens Sorrow and Makes Way for a New Affection

"And pray why not?"
"Because you are a very lonely woman; your children are married and have homes of their own; they may love you devotedly, and be kind and all that; but the fact remains, they do not need you to make their lives complete."
"They do not need you in their homes, and you must feel yourself a guest, when you visit them; it is in the nature of things. A new feeling, usually has come into their lives. The son has his wife, and the daughter her husband; and if they go away on a journey they would find more pleasure to be with each other than with a third party."

"Now I have two young children who will soon be married; and I do not propose to make myself a problem to them, nor happiness a pointer to myself."
"It was a good wife to their father and I respect his memory. We were happy when he lived and I mourn his death. But time has softened the sorrow of his loss; and a new affection has come into my heart."

THE SILENT LEADER

By JAMES J. MONTAGUE

(With Obligations)

THE Little Bill Moore is gathering dust. As he stands in his stall, all alone. The downcast Progressives have fed in disgust. They have troubles enough of their own. Time was when the Moore, with his antlers widespread, Was belittling 'toddly' all day. And that was the time when the Pierce Little Ted Was leading him into the fray.

"Go after 'em! Hook 'em! Destroy 'em!" he cried. "No matter how savage it looks. Don't leave a whole spot on a raccoon's hide. They're all off 'em here and crotchets!" And then came election, and Sagamore Hill Is steeped in a silence so deep That the Oyster Bay folk, with a foreboding chill, First trouble in getting to sleep.

The Little Bill Moore still stands in his stall, Neglected and doubtful and drear. The downcast Progressives still wait for the call That somehow they never can hear. And they wonder with hearts that are heavy as lead, As the days have dragged wearily on, What has become of their Pierce Little Ted, And also where Perkins has gone!
